

MANDATE

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS

FOR THE SECOND CIRCUIT

At a stated Term of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, held at the United States Courthouse, Foley Square, in the City of New York, on the seventh day of August, one thousand nine hundred and ninety-five,

William T. Connelly,
Plaintiff-Appellant,

v.

Bath National Bank,
Defendant-Appellee.

95-5031

A motion having been made herein by appellant pro se for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and assignment of counsel, upon consideration thereof, it is ordered that said motion be and it hereby is denied, and the appeal is dismissed as so indisputably lacking in merit as to be frivolous within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(d). See Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319 (1989).
