

ATTORNEY FEES

In consideration of the retainer fee paid by debtors under Chapter 7 and Chapter 13, an attorney practicing before this Court will be expected to perform the following services:

1. Analysis of the financial situation and rendering advice and assistance to the client in determining whether to file a petition under Title 11, United States Code.
2. Preparation and filing of the petition, schedules of assets and liabilities, and statement of affairs.
3. Representation of the client at the first meeting of creditors.
4. Motions pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §522(f) to avoid liens on exempt property.
5. Motions pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §722 to redeem exempt personal property from liens.
6. Negotiate, prepare and obtain Court approval of reaffirmation agreements.
7. Motions or proceedings to clear title to real property owned by the debtor, including motions for abandonment.
8. Removal of garnishment or wage order.

Additional services in Chapter 13 cases:

9. Attend confirmation hearing.
10. Negotiate valuation of secured claims.
