No. 00-03

July 6, 2000

The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of New York is pleased to announce the availability of WebPACER. This new and exciting version of PACER will allow registered PACER users the ability to access case information over the Internet from any computer equipped with a web browser (i.e., Netscape, Internet Explorer.) The address (URL) for this new Internet related service is: <http://pacer.nywb.uscourts.gov>.

An access fee of $.07 per page for PACER over the Internet will be assessed. Traditional, dial-up PACER service is still available. A login and password issued by the PACER Service Center are required to access PACER either through the Internet or the dial-up service.

Please contact our Automation Department if you would like additional information or have any questions in this regard.
