UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT WESTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

In re

TREMONT CORPORATION

Case No. 89-12201 K

Debtor

DOUGLAS MARKY, as Trustee of TREMONT CORPORATION

Plaintiff

-vs-

AP 91-1341 K

NORSTAR BANK, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

Defendant

Daniel F. Brown, Esq., William F. Savino, Esq. Damon & Morey 1000 Cathedral Place, 298 Main St. Buffalo, New York 14202

Attorneys for the Plaintiff

Janet G. Burhyte, Esq. Jaeckle, Fleischmann & Mugel 800 Norstar Building Buffalo, New York 14202

Attorneys for the Defendant

NeverNever step over oneNever step over one duty to perform anothe: An English proverb.

TheThe defendant in this adversary proceedingThe defendant in this thethe plaintiff Trustee and his counsel, in their the plaintiff Trustee theirtheir duty to preserve any causes of action thattheir duty to preserve a ofof the estate, neglected their F.R.Civ.P. 11 ("Rule 11") and BankruptcyBankruptcy Rule 9011 duty to conduct a "reasonable inquiry" and determinedetermine that the action they were commencing is "well-grounded in fact."fact." Thus the dfact." Thus the defenfact." Thus the defenda attemptsattempts to set attempts to set asidattempts to set aside an $8 debtor.

Specifically, defendant Fleet (as successor to Norstar) asserts that asserts that although the debtor's insolvency at key point is an essential is an essential element of each of theis an essential elemen action, action, and despite many months of pre-suit investigation and eight monthsmonths of discovery, the Trustee cannot presently offer (in responseresponse to defendant's interrogatories) any fact at all in support of of the complaint's allegations of insolvency. Rather, in response toto the interrogatories the Trustee states that he needs further discovery discovery before he can reconstruct the debtor's assets and liabilitiesliabilities both immediately before and after the September 9, 198 transfer at issue.

ItIt It is iIt is important to focus upon some features distinguishdistinguish Bankruptcy Trustees from the generalitydistinguish Ba

 They are successors in interest to the debtor, withwith no first-hand knowledge of thewith no first-hand knowledg complaints that arise out of bankruptcy events.

2.2. Those non-p2. Those non-parti2. Those non-parties with a hostilehostile and even (as here) ahostile and even (as here) a person of statements about his finances. Some may persostatements ab from concealing facts from the Trustee.

Page 2

3.3. They may be personally liable for even slight negligence in failing to prosecute a cause of action that is an asset of their trust.

4.4. The two-yea4. The two-year Stat4. The two-year Statute of 546546 may be far shorter than the period of time that the debtor hadhad in whichhad in which to decide whetherhad in whe

ItIt is in recognition of such distinguishing features that this Court is decisively persuaded by pertinent statements of the NinthNinth Circuit Court of Appeals. In a non-bankruptcy case, tNinth Ci CoCourtCourt reversed the imposition of Rule 11 sanctions agaiCourt plaintiffs that were employee benefit trusts. The Court made the following statement:

> [T]rust[T]rust funds such as [T]rust funds such as those at issue he aa statutory and fiduciary duty to collect contributionscontributions that are owed. Tocontributions that ar forfor for vigorously trying to do so would rufor vigorous! countercounter to the responsibility placed on them byby Congress. See ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1001 et seq.seq. In fact, had the Trusts refrainedseq. In fact, had the pursuingpursuing their legal remedies inpursuing their legal remed mightmight well have been arguedmight well have been argued mig properlyproperly to perform their obligations. Before imposingimposing sanctiimposing sanctioimposing sanctions on tru oror their counsel, Courts must consider the implicationsimplications of the fiduciary duties and obligations obligations placed on those entities and weigh thatthat factor carefully in reaching ththat factor care judgments.

Operating Eng'rs Pension Trust v. A-C Co., 859 F.2d 1336, 1344 (9th Cir. 1988).

ThisThis is no lessThis is no less true of Bankruptcy Trustees. The toto sato say that Bto say that Bankruptcy Trustees are free to conduct whatsoever. It does, however, cast a very different light on the Rule 11 factors most often cited by the higher courts. Thus, for example, example, thexample, the 10th example, the 10th Circuit, in the case 965965 F.2d965 F.2d 916 (10th Cir. 1992) addressed the965 F.2d 916 (10th Cir. aa bankruptcy case, dismissal of a lawsuit was appropriate under RuleRule 11 where the suit had been commenced by the debtor prior to the filing of the petition in bankruptcy and where, also prior to thethe filingthe filing of the petition, the debtor hadthe filing of the pet conduct. The Court noted that once the bankruptcy was filed, the plaintiff'splaintiff's estate became the successor in interest of the lawsuit ItIt stated that a trial court'sIt stated that a trial court's discretion wo itit wereit were to "considerit were to "consider whom the sanction affected : sanction was appropriate." Id. at 920.¹

Page 4

ConsistentConsistent with the views of the Second Circuit regarding Rule 11, as set forth and reviewed in the case of O'Malley v. New YorkYork City Transit AuthYork City Transit Authority,, 896 F.2d 704 (2d lightlight of the teaching of that coulight of the teaching of that court F.2F.2dF.2d 1265 (F.2d 1265 (2d Cir. 1986), referring to its decision in ConstructionConstruction Corp. v. City of New York, 762 F.2d 243 (, 762 1985),1985), I hold that at least where the plaintiff is, as here, a ¹The Court affirmed dismissal of the lawsuit, finding, in part, that by the time the estate succeeded to the cause of action, the cause was already encumbered by the debtor's sanctionable conduct.

Case No. 89-12201K; AP 91-1341 K

BankruptcyBankruptcy Trustee, "Rule 11 is violatedBankruptcy Trustee, "Rule clearclear that a claim has absolutely no chance of success.'"

Olivieri, 803 F.2d at 1275.

TheThe Bank's motion to dismiss the complaint as a sanction under Rule 11 is denied.

AlsoAlso pending is the Bank's motion to amend the scheduling orderorder soorder so as to extendorder so as to extend the discovery deadling and the pre-trial memoranda and motions deadline to September 30, 1992,1992, and to provide for a calendar call of this ad1992, and t proceeding on October 21, 1992. This relief is granted.

Finally, Finally, there is Finally, there is pendingFinally, there is toto compel the defendant to comply with certain discovery requests. That motion is granted, as is the plaintiff's motion to amend the captioncaption of this adversarycaption of this adversary proceeding to refl of Norstar Bank, N.A. to Fleet Bank of New York, N.A.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: Buffalo, New York August 26, 1992

U.S.B.J.

Page 5